kind of dressing, we ought to do it that way. We ought to do it that way, and maybe that will make us look like heroes for a minute. Just like the guy one time that jumped out of the twenty story building and got down about five floors and he said, so far, so good.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The question has been called for. Do I see five hands? I see five hands. The question before the house, shall debate cease? Record the vote.

CLERK: 31 ayes, 2 nays to cease debate.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Debate is ceased. Now, Mr. Clerk, can you read the rule change so we know what we're voting on?

CLERK: Mr. President, I can give it a try. Mr. President, the proposed rule change I think would read as follows: Each member shall be limited as an introducer or cointroducer to a total of seventeen bills for the two year period consisting of the first and second regular sessions of each Legislature. Each committee shall be limited as an introducer to a total of ten bills for each regular session of the Legislature provided...no, strike that. Each committee...okay, bills introduced as the result of an interim study of the Legislative Council shall be included within the limitation described by this section provided to suspend the rules to allow a committee to extend the ten bill limit a four-fifths vote shall be required. Then there would be a new paragraph. For each bill introduced following the name of the introducer and the district number there shall appear the following language: This bill introduced on behalf of _____. The blank space shall be completed by writing the name of the special interest group, if any, encouraging the legislation. If no special interest group was responsible for the legislation, then the senator shall insert his or her own name. Bills introduced under Rule 5, Section 3(a), or introduced at the request of the Governor and Appropriation bills will not be included in this limitation.

SPEAKER MARVEL: The motion is the adoption of that. All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Senator Kahle, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR KAHLE: For closing.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay.
